American Reporting Company, LLC respects the privacy of every individual who visits our websites. This privacy statement provides notice of the standards and terms under which American Reporting Company, LLC protects the privacy of information supplied by visitors to sites on the World Wide Web that are owned and operated by American Reporting Company, LLC, including but not limited to www.arcreports.com, www.arcorp.com, www.arcreports.net. This privacy statement provides notice of our information collection practices and of the ways in which your information may be used. This policy may change from time to time, so please check back periodically to review this information.

What information does American Reporting Company, LLC collect and how is it used?

A. Personally-Identifiable Information:

American Reporting Company, LLC typically receives specific data about its website visitors only when such information is provided voluntarily, such as when our visitors request information, purchase or enroll for services, provide resume information for employment opportunities, or send us e-mail. Of course, some of these activities require that you give us information, such as when you make a purchase, use a credit card to pay for services, submit your resume, or request certain types of information. When you provide personally-identifiable information to American Reporting Company, LLC through one of our websites, it will be used to fulfill your specific request. American Reporting Company, LLC may use information you provide to inform you about additional services or changes to services and products offered by American Reporting Company, LLC. American Reporting Company, LLC will not, however, sell or trade your personally-identifiable information unless we are legally required to do so, or in the case of imminent physical harm to the visitor or others. On those American Reporting Company, LLC sites where you may provide American Reporting Company, LLC with credit card or other ordering information via the web, American Reporting Company, LLC protects and secures this information by employing commercially customary web-based security and encryption protocols, examples of which include Secure Socket Layer (SSL) and Secure Electronic Transaction (SET). On those sites where you voluntarily offer any feedback, data, answers, questions, comments, suggestions, ideas or the like, American Reporting Company, LLC will treat that portion of the information as non-confidential and non-proprietary and, except as otherwise expressed in this privacy statement, American Reporting Company, LLC assumes no obligation to protect such information from disclosure.

B. Non Personally-Identifiable (Generic) Information:

In general, American Reporting Company, LLC gathers some generic information automatically. Generic information does NOT reveal the identity of the visitor. It usually includes information about the Internet address assigned to your computer, the number and frequency of visitors, and the American Reporting Company, LLC sites visited. American Reporting Company, LLC gathers this information for the limited purpose of determining customer service and website needs. We accomplish this by using certain technologies, including "cookies" (a technology that can be used to provide the visitor with tailored information about American Reporting Company, LLC services). American Reporting Company, LLC does not combine information collected in this way with any personally-identifiable information. You can set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie and you can refuse it.

C. American Reporting Company, and Third-Party Sites:

Information that you disclose in a public space, including on any bulletin board, chat room, etc., is available to anyone else who visits that space. American Reporting Company, LLC cannot safeguard any information you disclose in these locations. Additionally, American Reporting Company, LLC websites contain links to sites that belong to third parties unrelated to American Reporting Company, LLC. American Reporting Company, LLC cannot protect any information you may disclose in these sites and recommends that you review the privacy policy statements of those sites you visit.

D. Exceptions and Limitations:

Notwithstanding the foregoing and in compliance with applicable laws, American Reporting Company, LLC (i) cooperates fully with state, local, and federal officials in any investigation relating to any content (including personal or private electronic communications transmitted to American Reporting Company, LLC) or purported unlawful activities of any user of the Service, and (ii) takes reasonable measures to protect its proprietary rights. For the limited purposes of accomplishing such cooperation and measures and in compliance with applicable laws, American Reporting Company, LLC may be required to disclose personally identifiable information. In addition, American Reporting Company, LLC may elect to monitor the areas of communication of any kind (i) to satisfy any law, regulation, or government request; (ii) if such disclosure is necessary or appropriate to operate American Reporting Company, LLC; or (iii) to protect the rights or property of American Reporting Company, LLC or others.
